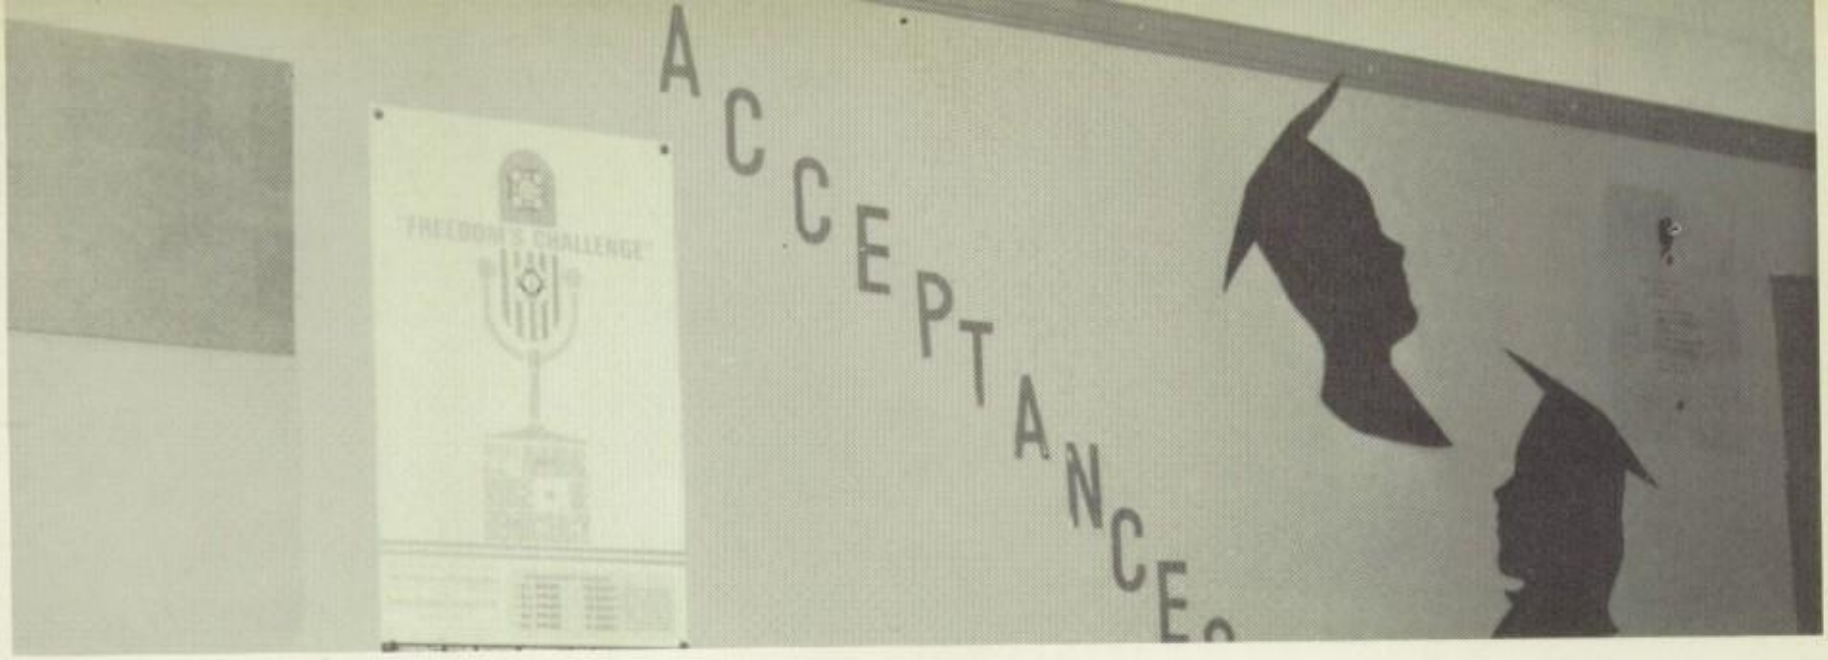
MAGICAL
MYSTERY
TOUR



it won't be long

let it out and let it in.

i'm so tired i haven't slept a wink, i'm so tired my mind is on the blink.

i want to hold your hand nothing to get hung about give me your answer, fill in a form

tell me why

i can't break away
from these chains

i've just seen a face i can't forget

so go away, leave me alone, don't bother me.

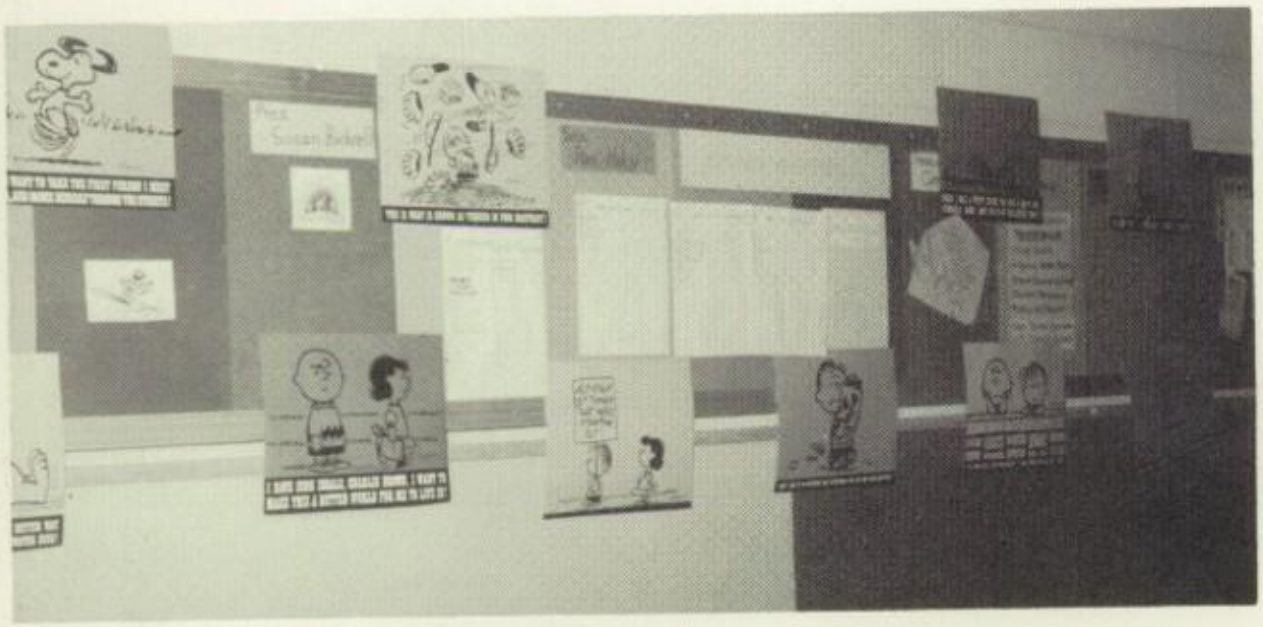
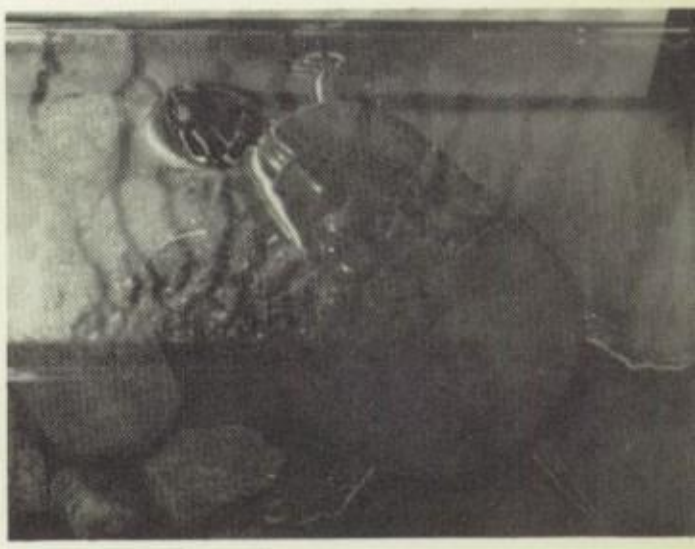
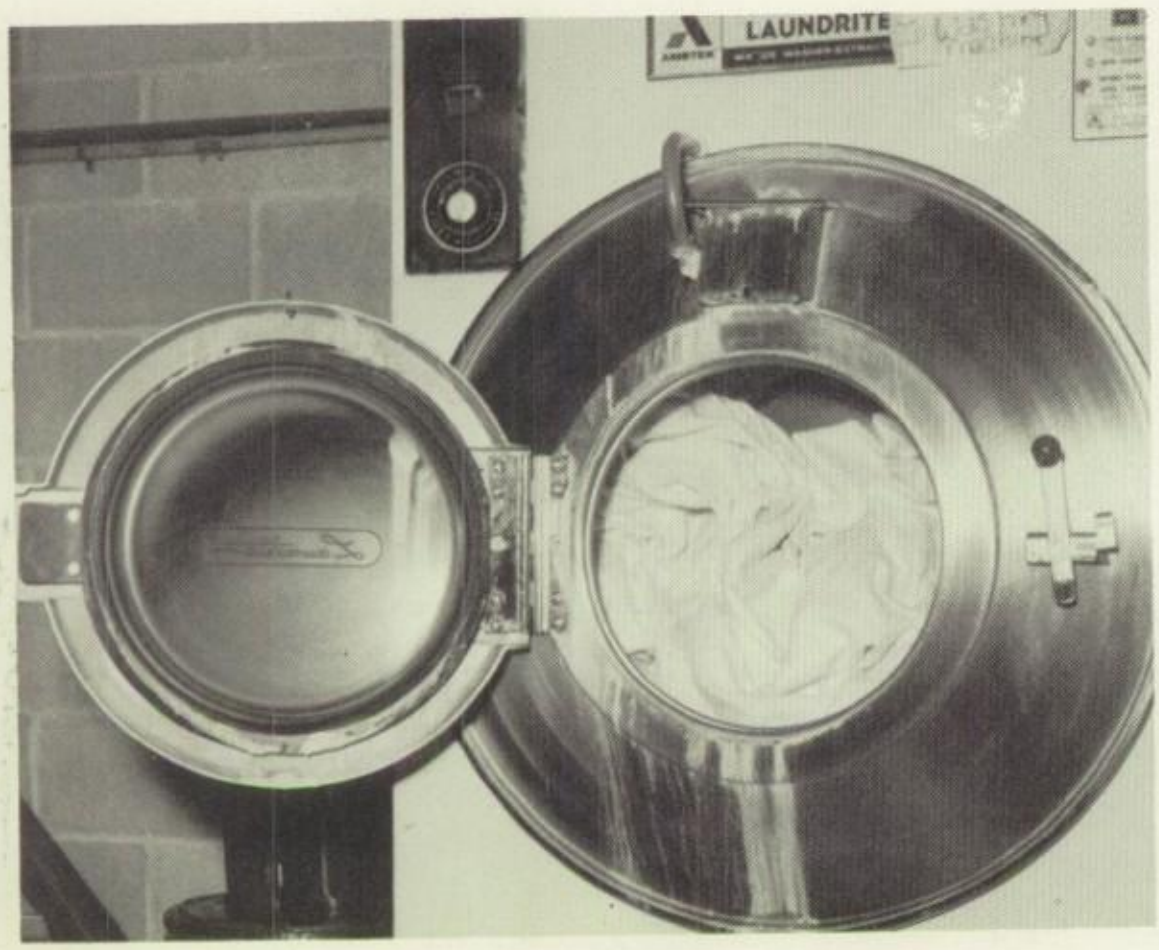
i've got somethin' i can laugh about i spend my days in conversation there were bells . . . but i never heard them ringing there's a place where i can go when i feel low, when i feel blue stepping outside she is free do you want to know a secret could it mean you don't love me anymore?



well you know we don't wanna change the world





it's a clean machine

oh no, not a second time!

you don't need me to show you the way half of what i say is meaningless it's getting better all the time dressed it up and they called it me little child won't you dance with me

we can work it out

oh yeah!!!

will you still feed me when i'm 64?

c'mon and twist a little closer now they asked me to stay and they told me to sit anywhere you say why, i say i don't know

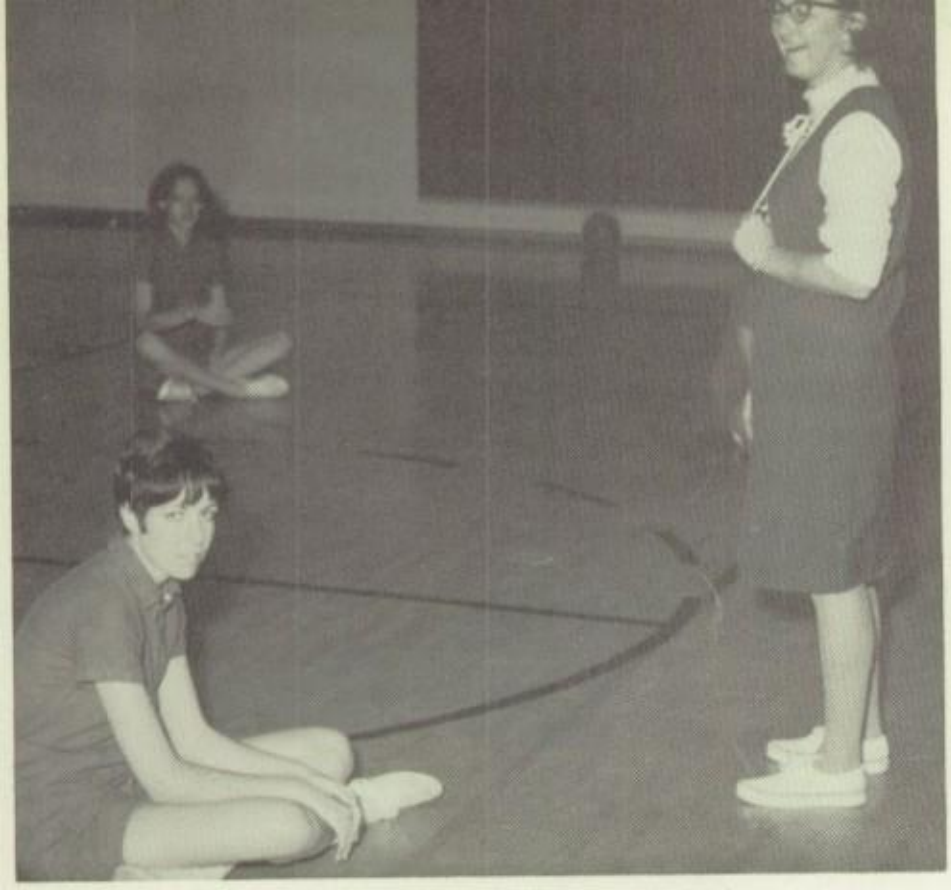
he's leaving home



somebody calls you – you answer quite slowly

i get by with a little help from my friends you've really got a hold on me

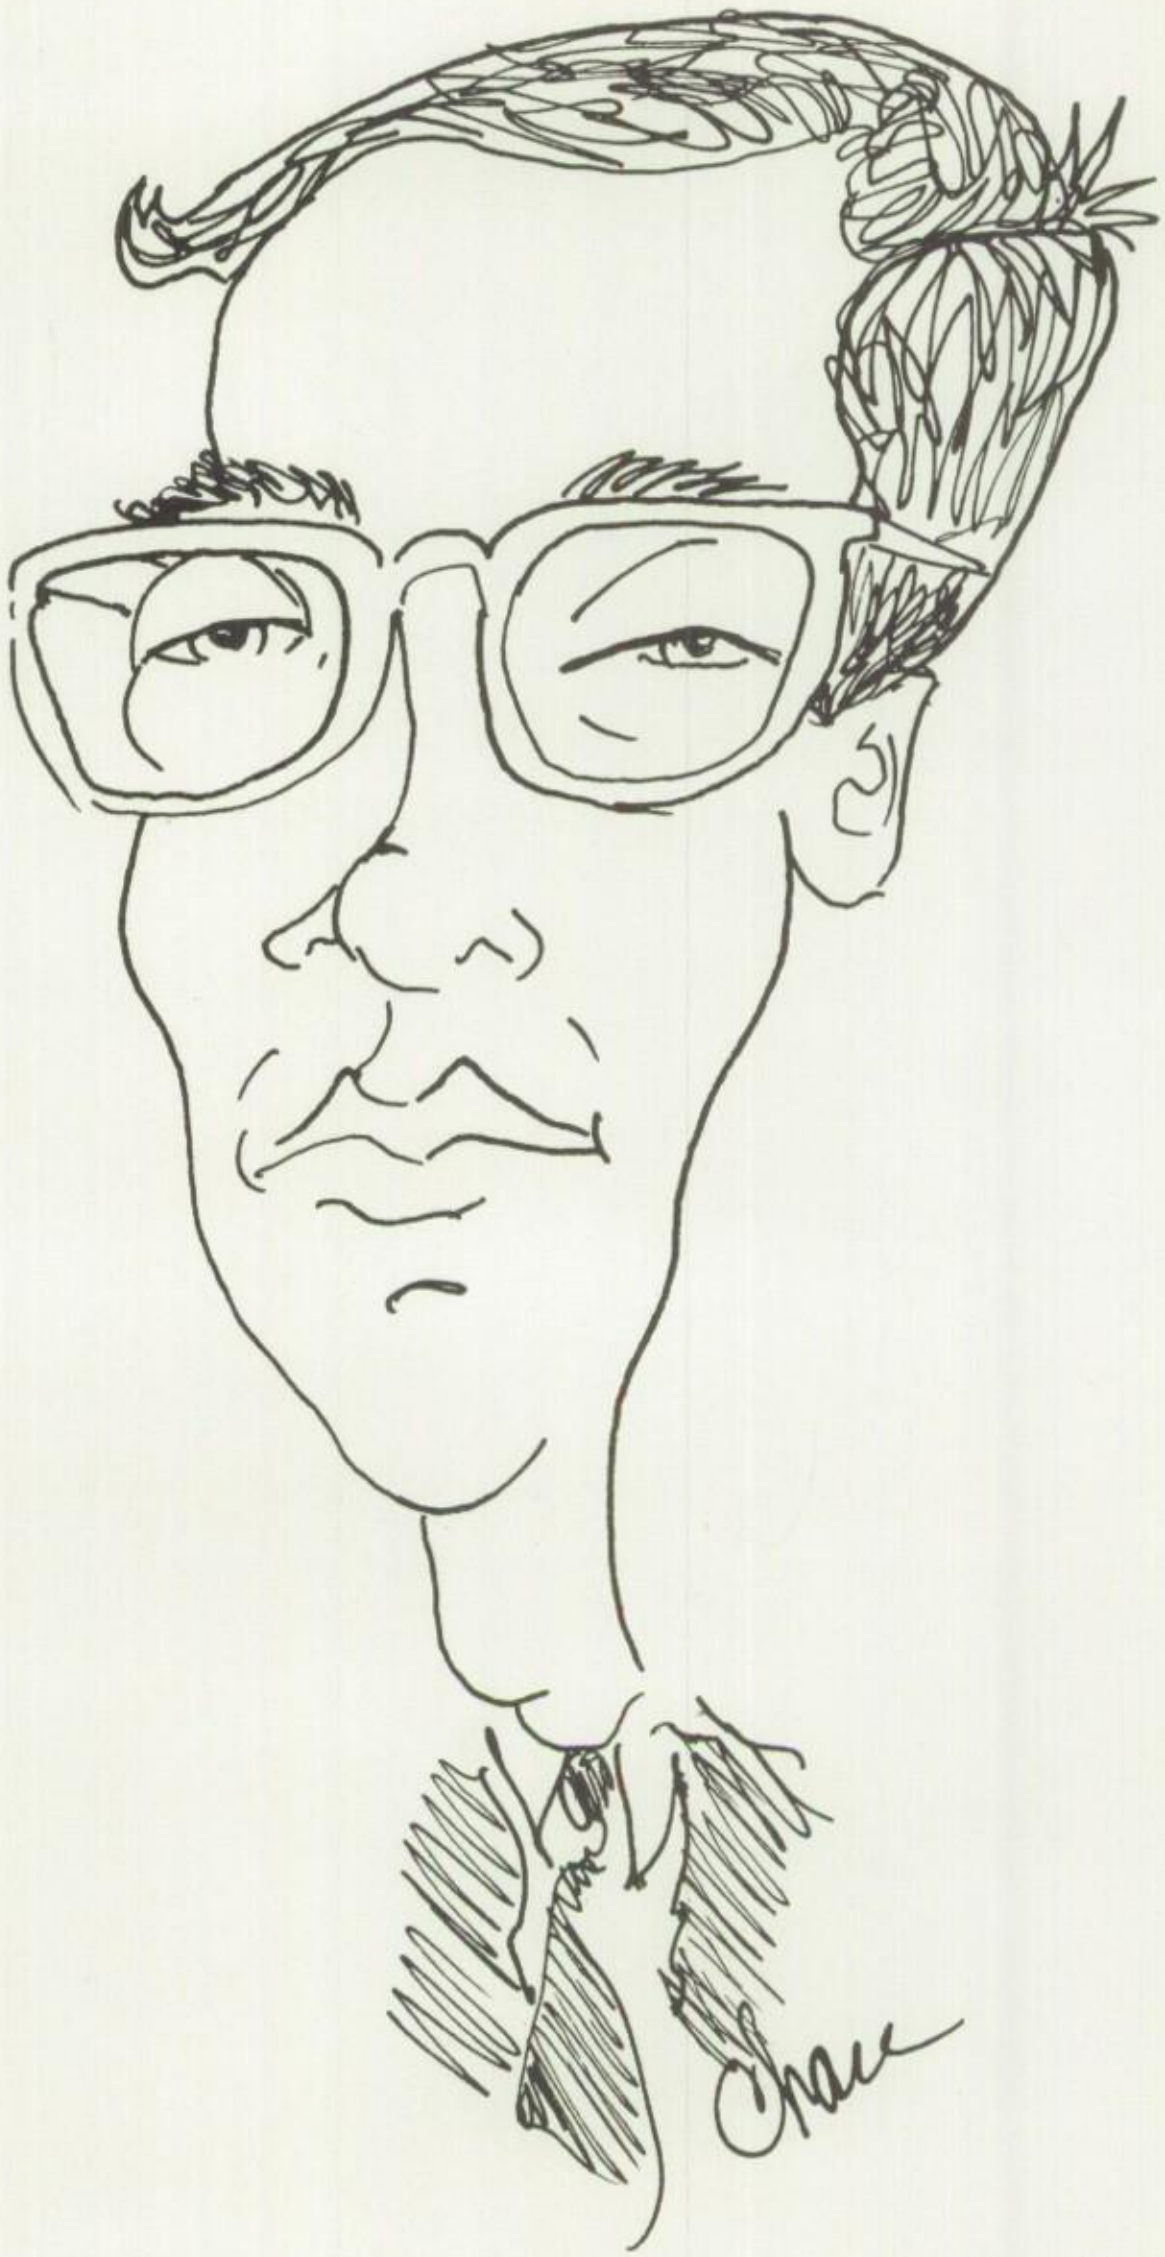
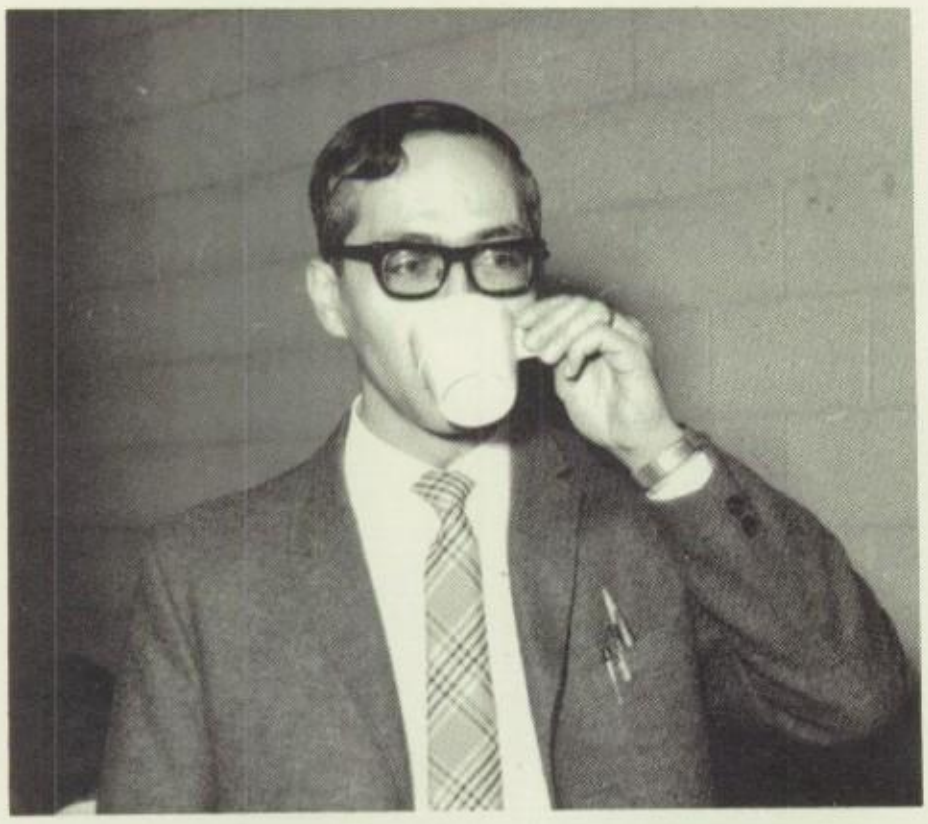
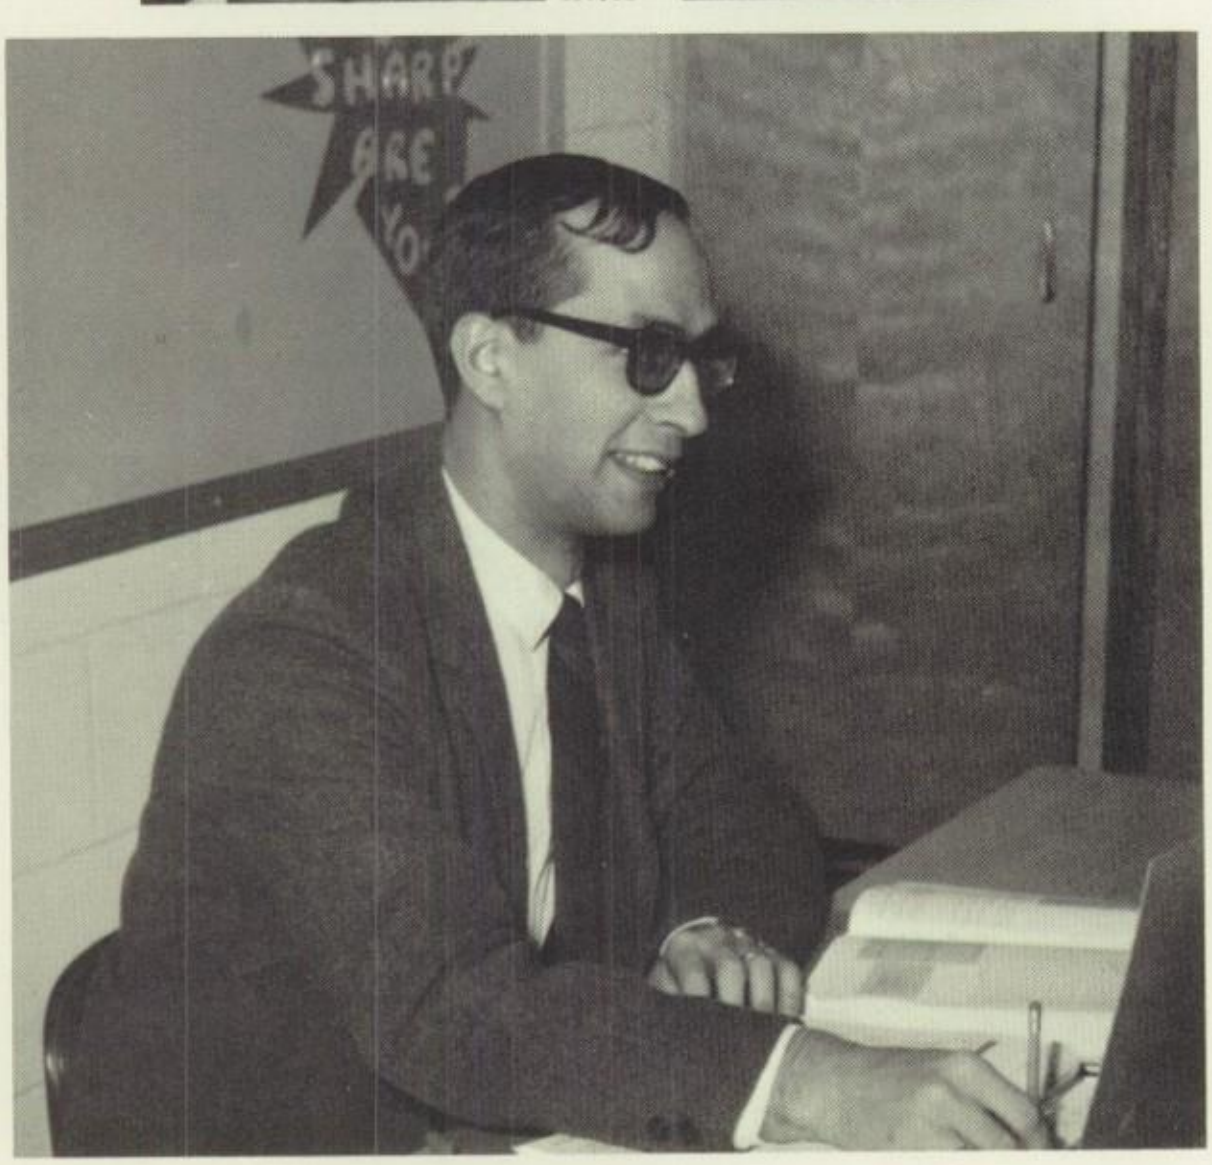
dedication







what is an advisor?
an advisor is someone who hangs in there when there's no money to spend; someone who organizes things (or let's the kids organize them and then does all the work); someone who sticks by us when everyone else says 'forget it!'; someone like mr. flammia. thanks for everything.

let me see! let me see!

how do you know he's on our side?

what do you say, bob? are you going to catch it?

which way did he go?

1968 will be the year everyone remembers for the games in the mud and the rain. maybe the best way to tell the tale of the team is to show it during its first and last games, both victories, at west bridgewater and cohasset. so maybe the weather doesn't make that much difference.

don't let it get away.

he went that away . . .
